Dear Carrie:

Jane and I are so busy we hardly have time to turn around but every thing is going fine.

The expenses are comming fine. I want to get some little things for Mildred & Jane and Shirley Maurice for ^{part} Christmas. It wont cramp us a bit because we've got plenty of surplus. Do you think I'd better?

I've got a ginger bread in the oven now for dinner.

We're going to have steak & dressing, potatoes & gravy, apple salad, ginger bread and rice. Isnt that some dinner?

I'm sure having an awful

time trying to keep warm at night. I'd been sleeping on the couch lately but it doesn't seem to help much.

I told June this morning that I'd never pass an other winter "single".

Say mamma I think you had better get June that Cutex set. I know she wants it. Could you suggest some little thing
I could get for her an Midge. We could count
it from Bill & I back.

I haven't been down to see
Mr. Masters yet but I think I'll go tomorrow.

June is having those kids practice up here tonite. She's coming fine with the play. Well I do have to stop now and help

June.

Will soon & tell me what to do about those two presents.

Bud
